

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

📍 SOLOLA, GUATEMALA

ABOUT SOLOLA, GUATEMALA

The community of Solola sits high on a mountain overlooking Lake Atitlan. But the beauty of this location doesn't stop with the scenery; the people in the community and the children at the orphanage make this mission trip unforgettable. You will have the opportunity to spend time with children who have experienced abuse or neglect from their biological families, showing them love that only comes from Jesus. You will also do some light construction and maintenance on the facilities.

One of the goals of this trip is restoration. The location feels like a retreat center. So, when you are not working, you are more than likely taking in the beauty of God's creation, allowing Him to give you rest.
